[REDACTED] as related to SALT, requested by Chairman Lucien Nedzi (D., Mich.), would be sent up today. This is in preparation for a possible briefing of the Special Subcommittee on Intelligence on this subject.

In connection with a call Hogan had received from Philip A. Lacovara, who has been retained by Representative Michael Harrington (D., Mass.), in connection with a matter referred to the House Committee on Standards of Official Conduct, I reviewed with him what the so-called 1973 IG report was, the briefings on it to the Chairmen of the Armed Services Committees and that it had not been publicly released although the 29 August 1973 directives emanating from that report were released in sanitized form as part of the Director's 24 December 1974 report to the President.

THIRD AGENCY [REDACTED]

DIA, called to learn if we had received additional requests from Representative Patricia Schroeder (D., Colo.) concerning the Harper's article by Sam Adams explaining that they had sent one response but had subsequently received four more letters from her. I told him we had provided her an answer on this subject on 30 July 1975 and LDX'd him a copy of this reply.
